LIVING AT POTATO WHARF

1 FLOURISHING MANCHESTER

Over the past two decades, there has been a 120% increase in people living in the city centre, with the current 72,000 expected to increase to 100,000 people by 2024. The centre also continues to account for 44% of all employment within the city, with over 176,000 people employed there, contributing to a £6billion city centre economy.¹ Amongst the major local companies and employers are ITV, BBC, PWC, KPMG, Deloitte, Google and Amazon.

2 CONSISTENT GROWTH

House prices in Manchester have increased 36.5% since June 2016 whilst the median asking rent for a two bed Manchester property rose 17.3% between June 2016 and September 2021.²

3 JUST MINUTES FROM THE CENTRE

Potato Wharf is just ten minutes walk from the central business district of Manchester and to ever vibrant Spinningfields, five minutes from Deansgate Castlefield Station and 500m from the Metrolink.

4 CULTURALLY RICH NEIGHBOURHOOD

Manchester is home to the mega arts complex HOME, The Museum of Science and Industry, The Whitworth, the Centre for Chinese Contemporary Art, the Royal Exchange Theatre and The Lowry.

5 CASTLEFIELD COOL

Charismatic Castlefield is home to Potato Wharf and a multitude of popular bars and restaurants amongst the former warehouses, canals and cobbles of this charming district of the city centre.

6 GLORIOUS CANALSIDE LIVING

Residents enjoy the enduring tranquillity of living on the water, with its barges, wildlife, cafés, bars and footpaths linking to the city centre.

7 IMPRESSIVE ARCHITECTURE

The striking brick facades of Potato Wharf are instantly recognisable, inspired by the heritage of this industrial powerhouse. Each well-specified apartment has a balcony or terrace.

8 IMMACULATE INTERIORS

The interior design team have delivered a specification and finish that has been informed by the character of Castlefield to create an elegant and timeless solution with 'an urban edge'.

9 GARDENS IN THE SKY

The National Trust has revealed plans to turn the Castlefield viaduct that runs beside Potato Wharf into a new park space high up the Grade II-listed structure. Inspired by the New York High Line, it will be a significant new amenity for both Castlefield and the city.

METROPOLITAN LIVING

Manchester is an amazing place to work, live and enjoy. As the largest UK city region economy outside London, it has attracted many major international companies and the numerous universities continue to deliver an outstanding pool of talent.

Canal Street and its surrounding bars and restaurants

Spectacular performances can be seen at The Lowry, the Printworks, the Palace Theatre and the Manchester Opera House.
